Akhila Bharatha Veerashaiva Mahasabha

22nd Convention

Suttur Srikhetra, Mysore District

17th, 18th and 19th April 2011

Reception Committee and Office Bearers of
Mysore, Chamarajanagar, Mandya and Coorg Districts
Akhila Bharata Veerashaiva Mahasabha

Sharanu
(Welcome)
Akhila Bharatha Veerashaiva Mahasabha was established in 1904 by Pujya Sri Hanagal Kumaraswamiji. It is working for the organization and development of Veerashaiva-Lingayath Community. Presently, the Mahasabha has more than 75,000 members and has its own headquarters 'Veerashaiva-Lingayatha Bhavan' at Bengaluru. In order to unify Veerashaiva-Lingayaths socially and religiously, 21 conventions have been held till date.

The 22nd Convention of the Mahasabha will be held on 17th, 18th and 19th April 2011 at Suttur Sri Kshethra, Mysore District. Jagadguru Sri Veerasimhasana Mahasamstana Math of Sri Kshethra Suttur is one of the most ancient religious maths. It is situated on the bank of the river Kapila amidst beautiful green surroundings. The districts of Mysore, Mandya, Chamarajanagar and Kodagu, where the Veerashaiva tradition, culture and bonding are still rich, are hosting this convention, with great enthusiasm and fervour.

In the three days’ convention, an exhibition depicting the road traversed by Veerashaiva-Lingayatha Community has been organized. Various seminars on religious, social, economic and cultural issues are arranged. Cultural programmes will be held in the evening. People belonging to Veerashaiva-Lingayatha community from all over the world are expected to participate in this historic convention.

All are cordially invited to participate in this convention in large numbers and make this a grand success.
